

Women's Dermatologic Society

NEWSLETTER

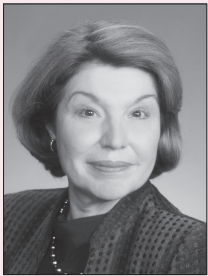

Volume 10, Issue 4
December/January 2007

IN THIS ISSUE

President's Message	1-2
WDS Annual Meeting Luncheon	1,7
WDS Academic Group Breakfast	2
Career Development Award	2
WDS Proposed Bylaws Changes	3
WDS 2007 Leadership Retreat.....	4-5
Academic Research Grant Recipients ...	5
WDS Schedule of Events	6
WDS Community Outreach	8
Reads & Recommends	9
WDS Contributors.....	9
WDS Volunteers	10
WDS New Members	11
New & Newsmakers	12

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My sister-in-law Debbie Innes was recently named one of the 25 most powerful women in banking in U.S. Banker's annual ranking. Our family is so very proud of her accomplishment. Although she is at the top of her game in her profession, she is a family member to us and takes a turn washing dishes or cooking a dish for family gatherings.

By ELIZABETH MCBURNEY, MD

As I read the profiles on these influential female bankers (who range in age from 39 to 75) I could not help but be reminded of our WDS members. Like our members, all of these women are busy and yet they still find time to read books, stay abreast of world events, care for their families, and become involved in community service.

Each profile included a few words of wisdom about how to succeed in being a well-rounded professional woman. These women are in the business world of banking and high finance and we are in the medical profession of dermatology, yet we can certainly identify with one another. Here are just a few of the gems from the interviews:

Continued on page 2

YOU'RE INVITED TO ATTEND THE

32nd Annual Meeting Luncheon

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2007

12 NOON

GRAND HYATT, INDEPENDENCE A BALLROOM

WASHINGTON, DC

details on page 7