President's Welcome Letter

Dear WDS Members, Supporters and Friends,
Welcome to the 2022 Women's Dermatologic Society Annual Meeting! We are honored by your presence.

As I reflect back on my presidency over the past year, I am so proud of all that we have accomplished. In spite of the challenges presented by COVID and the resulting attenuation of in-person activities, creative solutions prevailed, including a robust remote Resident Education Series. This year, we held 18 sessions, and as a result our resident memberships soared. In addition, we have hosted 8 Regional Networking events virtually with members across the country.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion remains a high priority for the WDS. The DEI Committee successfully filled the Summer Research Fellowships for underrepresented in medicine (UIM) medical students and UIM Aesthetic Research Mentorship Award for residents. WDS also held virtual panel events focusing on fellowship opportunities in dermatology; the match process and practice management; with all sessions being well attended.

Our Transforming Interconnecting Program Project (TIPP) shelter program flourished this year despite the difficulty of engaging women living in shelters during the pandemic. Our members persevered and 22 events were held. The WDS signature Sun Safety programs were also active. We hosted 3 Play Safe in the Sun and 7 Coast-to-Coast events this year.

Increasing the international footprint of the WDS remains a priority. The chair of our International Sections Committee, based in Australia, hosted a successful first-time hybrid/in-person and virtual international recruiting event.

Whether this is your first or 49th WDS Annual Meeting, I know that you will feel the amazing energy of our organization as we celebrate our achievements and look forward to a constructive and positive year ahead. I hope you will take a moment to meet someone new and explore how you can be more engaged with the WDS. We welcome you with open arms!

Warmest,

Erin Gilbert, MD, PhD, FAAD

Keynote Speaker

Ippolita Rostagno

Founder and CEO, IPPOLITA

About Our Speaker

Ippolita was born and raised in Florence and has nurtured a lifelong love affair with artisan culture ever since. Her father was an Italian avant-garde theater director, and her mother was an American decorative painter. Her unique background sensitized her from a young age to the importance of beauty and craftsmanship. In the botteghe of jewelers on the Ponte Vecchio she learned to admire the intricate techniques of jewelry making. In the streets and museums, she acquired a discerning eye for what makes art relevant to life.

In 1999, having identified a void for fine jewelry that could be worn daily, she decided to create a line of her own. Her lifelong fascination with the female form and her background in sculpture led her to create a signature language of organic silhouettes and sculpted forms. Her metal of choice is 18K gold, for which she has formulated a unique, proprietary alloy. With shapes imprinted directly on her body Ippolita has created a line of jewelry that has an unmistakable style, to which women are drawn for its eminent wearability.

IPPOLITA jewelry is sold in the best department stores and in her flagship store on Madison Avenue. In 2020 she opened a new boutique on Michigan Avenue in Chicago, and in 2022 opened her first European store in via Montenapoleone in Milan.

In 2015, Ippolita founded ARTEMEST, an online marketplace for Italian craft, which offers exquisite home décor and furniture made by talented artisans. Ippolita traveled around Italy for over a year, hand picking the best craftsmen to represent their trade and today the site has a stable of over 1,500 artisans, and counting. Her mission is to fuel Italian craft through commercial opportunity thus ensuring that age-old artistry and techniques will be passed on to future generations.

Honorary Legacy Award

Marta I. Rendon, MD

Marta I. Rendon, MD served as the WDS President-Elect from 2018-2020. While she made the difficult decision to step down from the position of President to focus on her health, the Board recognized her as the first WDS Honorary President.

Dr. Rendon had a deep love and passion for dermatology, and over the course of her career she developed an extensive list of accomplishments and contributions to the field. In addition to her involvement with WDS, she also served as President and Founder of American Society of Aesthetics Dermatology & Surgery, as President of the Skin of Color Society, as a member of the Belizean Grove, and served as clinical associate professor for

University of Miami School of Medicine in the Department of Dermatology for over 20 years.

Rose Hirschler Award

Pearl E. Grimes, MD

Dr. Pearl Grimes is the Founder and Director of the Vitiligo and Pigmentation Institute of Southern California and The Grimes Center for Medical and Aesthetic Dermatology. She is a pioneer and a leading international authority on vitiligo and pigmentary disorders. Dr. Grimes is a Clinical Professor of Dermatology at the David Geffen School of Medicine,

University of California – Los Angeles. She has authored more than 150 professional articles, abstracts and two textbooks and she holds numerous achievements in dermatology.

She has been recognized by her peers with the prestigious Dermatology Foundation “Practitioner of the Year” award and the Women’s Dermatologic Society’s “Mentor of the Year” award and the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery President’s Award in 2006. In 2016, she was recognized with an American Skin Association Research Achievement Award. She was also awarded the prestigious 2017 Arnold P. Gold Foundation Humanism in Medicine Award and the 2017 Everett C. Fox, MD Memorial Award and Lectureship Award. In addition, she was the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Skin Association for 2017.

She is an active member of multiple professional organizations including: The American Academy of Dermatology, The American Society of Dermatologic Surgery, the American Dermatological Association, Society of Investigative Dermatology, the Dermatology Foundation, International Federation of Pigment Cell Societies, International Peeling Society, & the Women’s Dermatologic Society. Dr. Grimes was the President of the Women’s Dermatologic Society for 2018-2019. She is the current Chair of the AAD’s Intersociety Diversity Task Force. Dr. Grimes was the 2021 recipient of the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery’s Vic Narurkar Innovation in Aesthetics Award. She has been included in LA Magazine’s Super Doctors list and the Best Doctors of America list for many years.

Personal Note/ Statement of Thanks:

I am deeply honored and humbled to be the recipient of the prestigious Rose Hirschler Award, from the Women’s Dermatologic Society—an organization that I truly love and cherish. Dr. Rose Hirschler pioneered an amazing trajectory for women in dermatology, and I’m thrilled to stand on the shoulders of generations of phenomenal women who have made substantial contributions to our specialty. What brings true joy to the practice of medicine and science, is giving back and in making a meaningful difference in the lives of others. I thank you for this special honor.

Song: Feeling Good by Nina Simone

The Rose Hirschler Award is named in honor of Dr. Rose Hirschler, one of the first known female dermatologists in the United States. The award is presented annually by the WDS to physicians chosen for their significant contributions to medicine and dermatology and who, by their achievement, have served to enhance the role of women in the dermatologic specialty.

Walter B. Shelley, MD Leadership Award

Seemal R. Desai, MD, FAAD

Dr. Seemal Desai is a Diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology, and a Board Certified Dermatologist. He graduated with honors from Emory University. He received his medical training at Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia, and received his Doctor of Medicine degree with Magna Cum Laude with honors.

Past Recipients:

2021 – Charles N. Ellis, MD
2020 – Murad Alam, MD, MSCI, MBA
2019 – Neil S. Sadick, MD, FACP
2018 – David M. Pariser, MD

2015 – Richard Odom, MD
2014 – Stephen I. Katz, MD, PhD
2012 – E. Dorinda Shelley, MD (in honor of her late husband, Walter B. Shelley, MD)

Following medical school, Dr. Desai completed his medical internship in Internal Medicine. He then went on to complete his residency at The University of Alabama at Birmingham and served as Chief Resident for the Department of Dermatology.

Dr. Desai has been active on a local, state, and national level with numerous medical organizations, and is also actively involved in teaching and mentoring medical students and residents. He is the Founder & Medical Director of Innovative Dermatology, a state-of-the-art private practice in the Dallas area, and also serves as Clinical Assistant Professor of Dermatology at The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center.

Dr. Desai is the author of numerous publications and has been invited to present at countless national and international Dermatology events. His clinical expertise includes the treatment of vitiligo, and other disorders of pigmentation, psoriasis, acne, skin disease in skin of color, cosmeceuticals, and new drug therapies. Dr. Desai is very active in the dermatologic community and is the Past President of the Skin of Color Society, and Past President of the Texas Dermatological Society. In addition, he is a Past President of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Dermatological Society. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the International Society of Dermatology, the Board of Directors of the Women's Dermatologic Society, the Board of Directors of the Global Vitiligo Foundation, and has been on the Board of SkinPAC and the Skin of Color Society. Dr. Desai was the youngest ever dermatologist elected to the American Academy of Dermatology Board of Directors where he currently serves, and also serves on the AAD Executive Committee. In 2017, and again in 2021, Dr. Desai was appointed to serve on the US Food & Drug Administration, Pharmacy Compounding Advisory Committee (PCAC), and is the only dermatologist on this federal hearing committee. He has just been reappointed to another full 4 year term. He also serves as the Associate Editor of the Journal of Clinical & Aesthetic Dermatology and Pigment International. He has given over 100+ lectures nationally and internationally, and is passionate about advocacy and advancement of our specialty. He is married and has one daughter and one son.

Personal Note/ Statement of Thanks:

I am incredibly honored and grateful to receive the 2022 Walter B. Shelley, MD Leadership Award from the Women's Dermatologic Society. Dr. Shelley was a visionary icon in our specialty, and I am moved that his legacy continues through this award and through our organization. From being a master clinician to a servant leader, and a mentor to so many, he truly exemplified all that is good in our specialty and the WDS. The WDS has given me so much throughout my entire dermatology career. From mentorship, to networking, to lifelong friendships and so much more, and to be recognized for supporting women in their career as Dr. Shelley did for so many of our members, is incredibly meaningful.

I would like to thank all of my mentors, friends, and colleagues from the bottom of my heart for this privilege and honor, and I sincerely look forward to advancing the work of our WDS for many, many years to come. Long live the WDS!

Song: Don't Stop Believin' by Journey

The Walter B. Shelley, MD Leadership Award is presented periodically to a man who has made a significant contribution toward supporting women in dermatology.

Wilma Bergfeld, MD Visionary & Leadership Award

Karen E. Edison, MD

Dr. Karen Edison has been an academic dermatologist for over 30 years. For the last 16 years she has been the Philip C. Anderson Professor and Chair of Dermatology at the University of Missouri School of Medicine and was the first female Department Chair in 150-year history of that institution. She has long been a strong advocate for health care access and patient-centered care, having offered tele-dermatology services to rural and underserved

Missourians from 1995 to 2019. From 1999 to 2001, she served as Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health Policy Fellow in the U.S. Senate, where she was instrumental in achieving legislative expansion of Medicare reimbursement for telemedicine services in rural areas. Through her leadership as Director of both the University of Missouri Center for Health Policy and Missouri Telehealth Network, Dr. Edison has spearheaded efforts in Missouri to expand telemedicine, Medicaid data analysis, improve health equity, and foster health literacy statewide. Dr. Edison also served on the inaugural Board of Directors for Missouri Health Connection, Missouri's public/private health information exchange organization, and currently serves on the Missouri Women's Health Council appointed by the governor. Nationally, Dr. Edison has served many leadership roles for the American Academy of Dermatology, including Chair of the Teledermatology Taskforce, Access to Dermatology Care Committee, and Specialty Positioning Workgroup. More recently, Dr. Edison has led an innovative videoconferencing effort offering best-practice training to underserved areas in Missouri, Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes (Show-Me ECHO). In the 5 years prior to retirement in 2019, she founded and led the first Dermatology ECHO in the U.S. As Senior Medical Director of Show-Me ECHO, she has helped lead and grow program offerings from 2 in 2014 to over 35 ECHO programs today.

2016 - Elizabeth McBurney, MD
2011 - Lynn A. Drake, MD
2006 - Antoinette F. Hood, MD
2002 - June K. Robinson, MD
2000 - Wilma F. Bergfeld, MD

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks:

I am so grateful and honored to receive the 2022 Wilma Bergfeld, MD Visionary & Leadership Award from the Women's Dermatologic Society. This recognition is especially meaningful as I reflect on my career path and see the shadow of trailblazers like Dr. Bergfeld in whose footsteps many of us have walked. The WDS, through its mentorship, visionary leadership, and community service, continues to lead the way in supporting and promoting women in dermatology. I am proud to be a member of WDS and of the many strong, visionary women leaders that this organization represents.

Song: Girl on Fire by Alicia Keys

The Wilma Bergfeld, MD Visionary and Leadership Award was created in 2000 at the 25th Anniversary celebration of the WDS, to recognize dermatologists of national prominence who have been trailblazers for women in some aspect of our specialty.

Mentor of the Year Award

Kimberly J. Butterwick, MD

Dr. Kimberly J. Butterwick received her dermatology training at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, her medical degree from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine and her Bachelor of Science from Stanford University. She is board-certified in Dermatology and has passed the board examination for the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgeons.

For over 30 years, Dr. Butterwick's cosmetic dermatology practice in San Diego has been on the forefront of injectables, lasers, energy devices, and body contouring with devices and tumescent liposuction. She has authored or co-authored over 34 peer reviewed articles and 19 book chapters, participated in more than 60 clinical studies, and has given over 300 academic presentations.

Additionally, Dr. Butterwick was co-founder of and actually named the skin care line, SkinMedica.

Dr. Butterwick has served on the boards of three dermatologic professional organizations - the ASDS, WDS, and the AAD as well as the AAAHC, having been co-director of an out-patient dermatologic surgicenter for over 20 years. She has participated in and chaired many committees and educational meetings for each dermatologic organization. She chaired the US Western Regional Committee for WDS, organizing many networking events in her area. Dr. Butterwick's passion for mentorship has been evidenced by her participation in the WDS and ASDS mentorship and FLN programs, her service as faculty for many resident educational programs and her work as associate director of two Fellowship Training programs in her office for the ASDS since 2013 and the AACCS from 2007-2013.

Her outside interests include hiking, reading good novels, travel, enjoying the company of family and friends and spoiling Lola - her mini golden doodle.

Personal Note/ Statement of Thanks:

I am humbled and honored to accept the 2022 WDS Mentor of the Year Award.

- Humbled, because I have received so much sage advice, gentle guidance and keen knowledge from the WDS mentors who guided me as I set out on my dermatology path. I am so grateful for mentors like Susan Weinkle, Rhoda Narins, and Tina Alster.
- Honored, to be considered as helpful to dermatologists early in their careers as these women have been to me and so many others in our careers.

As the years passed, my own 'lessons-learned' accumulated. I realized I might have something to offer to younger colleagues. It became my turn to help those just embarking on their journey. As a mentor to residents and fellows for many years, I have learned and grown from each young eager inquisitive mind, asking questions that cause one to pause and ponder and seek solutions. For those of you who mentor, you know that 'the learning' is not a one-way street. I likely learn as much from my mentees as I like to think I am offering them! Mentorship is an enlightening win-win engagement for both mentor and mentee.

Once mentored by someone who truly believes in you, you become both empowered and compelled to one day try to nurture and inspire others. I urge you all to participate in the WDS mentorship program - as either a mentor or a mentee! Mentorship is a core value of WDS and is vital for cultivating, enriching, and sustaining the supportive inclusive community of WDS. The mentoring process infuses happiness and success in our lives and careers.

This award means so much to me and I thank you with all my heart.

Song: Cold Heart by Elton John and Dua Lipa

The first WDS Mentor of the Year Award was given to Frances J. Storrs, MD, who had previously returned her honorarium to the WDS for the Rose Hirschler Award in 1991, to establish a Mentorship Program. Since 1993, the Mentorship Program has funded more than 400 women and men early in their professional careers, to spend one-on-one time with an established mentor of specific expertise.

Dr. Sarkar was instrumental in India being the first country to join the WDS TIPP Shelter Program.

Personal Note/ Statement of Thanks:

First of all, I would like to thank WDS for bestowing this big honour on me. It has always been a dream. I am really delighted to receive the "Volunteer of the Year Award" from WDS, as WDS is a society extremely close to my heart. WDS truly envisions and nurtures growth and leadership in women dermatologists. Having worked as a member and a Chair in the International Affairs Committee as well as International Representative, Board of Directors, WDS, I have observed and learnt a lot from these awesome and courageous women leaders who have been friends and mentors. I have been able to carry on the activities of the Safety in the Sun program and also TIPP-Women's Global Shelter Project through our Joint WDS-Indian WDS members and IWDA. As the second elected President of the IADVL in its fiftieth year, I will be able to put to use all that I learnt from WDS.

Song: Slumdog Millionaire by Jai Ho

The Volunteer of the Year award has been established to recognize a WDS member who has made an outstanding contribution through community service. The rollout of this award at the 2014 Annual Luncheon coincided with the tenth anniversary of WDS community outreach programs, and this now annual award will continue to honor all those who support WDS and our service outreaches.

President's Award

Deborah MacFarlane, MD

After graduating from Otago Medical School, New Zealand, I received training in general surgery at Auckland Hospital, Ohio State University and Massachusetts General Hospitals. A dermatology residency from Columbia Presbyterian, New York was followed by specialty training in Mohs Micrographic Surgery at Baylor, Houston. I joined the faculty at Oklahoma Health Sciences Center as Director of Mohs and Dermatologic Surgery for 3 years and have also served as Director of the Mohs Unit and Procedural Surgery Fellowship at MD Anderson where I have been a Professor of Dermatology and Head and Neck Surgery for the past 12 years.

My textbook on skin cancer, now in its second edition, is available in all medical libraries and serves as a resource both for dermatologists, physicians of all specialties, medical trainees and allied medical professionals. Over the past 25 years I have served on many WDS committees including the Board of Directors and have held the position of Secretary for the past 3 years.

Personal Statement:

As the first Foreign Medical graduate to receive dermatology training in this country I am committed to education. I look forward to that time when the WDS is globally recognized as an organization supporting the education and careers of all dermatologists.

The President's Award is given at the discretion of the President of the WDS to an individual, or individuals, of her choosing. The awardee is an individual, or individuals, who supported the President in an extraordinary way during her term to help make the Society a better organization.
